

Ministers Have Fine Meeting

AUTUMN DIST. CONFERENCE HERE TUES.-WED.

One of the biggest and most important events ever held in Grayling was that of the Autumn District Conference of the Saginaw district, Methodist Episcopal churches, that closed here Wednesday afternoon. Out of 49 ministers in the district, 46 were present. And with them were wives and laymen of the several churches. The affair was much like the state convention of Danish Lutheran societies here in 1913.

The Rev. Edgar Flory was the host of the visitors and District Superintendent Sidney D. Eva was in charge of the programs. The conference opened Tuesday at 10 a. m., with a service of worship. The preacher was Dr. C. W. Longman, associate secretary of the Board of Education, Chicago.

Most of the time was taken up with discussions of conference matters. On Tuesday evening Dr. Longman gave another of his masterful sermons. At the supper hour John E. Marvin, associate editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate, discussed the subject "Christian Youth Building a New World."

The Wednesday program began with devotional service at 8:30 a. m. This was followed by an address by Bishop Frederick T. Keeney of Chicago and Atlanta, Ga.

At noon Wednesday the Kiwanis club of Grayling were guests of the conference. Bishop Keeney was the speaker.

Through the conference musical numbers were given by some of our Grayling women, and the church choir. Among those taking part were Mrs. Milnes, Mrs. Jarmin, Mrs. Gothro, and Mrs. Underwood, all under direction of Mrs. Clippert. Edward Webb surprised the visitors by his fine voice in spite of his 78 years, and received many deserved compliments.

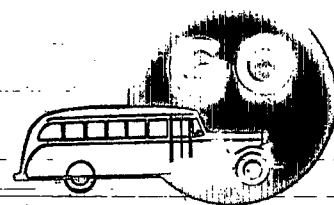

The conference adjourned at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon.

STERLING-MARKBY

Saturday evening, Miss Belle Markby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Markby, and Mr. Wilbur Sterling, of Houghton Lake, were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. Edgar Flory officiating. Miss Josephine Dunn and Francis Czekyski were the attending couple.

The bride chose for the occasion a crepe gown of aqua blue, with which she wore black accessories. Miss Dunn chose a frock of rust colored crepe. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling will make their home with the bride's parents for a time, after which they will make their home at Houghton Lake.

They have the congratulations of their friends for a long and happily wedded life.

With the first practice session just around the corner Grayling basketball fans will be interested to note the basketball schedule arranged for 1936-37.

Coach Cornell's baseball squad closed the fall season in a fitting manner Friday afternoon by turning back Mancelona to the tune of 4-3. The boys showed class in winning this game that they have not shown before. With excellent support from the fielders and a lot of grand, solid base hits by his mates, Anthony handled the pitching assignment in fine shape.

This completed the fall schedule and baseball will be discarded until next spring.

Coach Cornell is proud of the progress of the boys this year. "I feel the boys have made real progress since the start of baseball in the high school last spring. Boys who participated in Legion baseball this summer have gained a lot of experience. I hope more boys from the high school will report for baseball next spring," he stated.

It is needless to say that the Coach has done a great job of developing the players this year. The Grayling lineup and batting order:

Bowen cf.; Coutts 1st; Deckrow c.; Hanson ss; Westerholm lf; Tibbitts 2nd; C. Anthony p; Hull 3rd; Kraus rf.

Other members of the squad are: J. H. Peterson, infield; Ruthowski, outfield; R. Anthony and A. Anthony, outfield; Bidvia, infield; and Jensen, infield.

The first meeting of the Hi-Y club for this year was held at the high school Monday evening. Officers and members are:

President—Max Ferguson.
Vice Pres.—Kermit Chayron.
Secretary—Howard Neal.
Treasurer—Bill Joseph.

Members—John Henry Peterson, Donald Peterson, Brett Connolly, Stephan Jorgenson, Dewey Coutts, Leonard Knibbs, Edwin Chalkier and Loren Dunham.

One of the first projects of this club will direct is the mock election in which the upper six grades will participate.

The Juniors are busy selecting a play which will be given later this fall.

5th Grade

Friday afternoon we enjoyed reports of the following trips:

Jane Milnes gave a report on her trip to the Upper Peninsula. We found the pictures most interesting, and also the iron ore. Mildred Smith gave a very picturesque report of her ride over the mountain road to West Virginia.

Nelle Welsh found the Chicago Museum the most fascinating part of her trip to Wisconsin. We would all like to visit the museum.

1st Grade

We have forty-three boys and girls in our first grade room. We are divided into three reading classes: Bluebirds, Butterflies and Bluejays. Our reading book is called "The Little Book."

Some of the boys and girls have been bringing colored leaves for our room. In Art class we made leaves to put up in our room. They look very nice.

Clifton Papendick brought a plant for our window and some boys and girls brought books for our library table. We are trying to make our room as attractive as we can.

THANKS THE VOTERS

To the Voters of Presque Isle District: Your confidence in me as your representative, as expressed by the splendid vote you gave me in the Primary Election of Sept. 15th, is an inspiration, and if returned to Lansing in the November election I shall endeavor to at all times conduct myself as a representative of you, the people who send me.

And I thank you sincerely for that confidence.

Wm. Green.

Grange Holds Booster Meeting

The Grange Booster meeting held Wednesday night of last week at the I. O. O. F. temple was a grand success. There was a fine large crowd present to listen to the program that had been arranged by Crawford County Grange No. 934.

Many local people aside from members were invited and there was a gathering of some 125 people. The program was varied with interesting talks, speeches, and musical numbers that were well prepared and received.

After the meeting had been opened with due ceremony and the flag salute was led by Mrs. Rufus Edmunds, Hugo Schreiber Jr., master of the local Grange, welcomed the assemblage and gave a resume of what Booster Night meant. At this time he introduced F. J. Mills as master of ceremonies for the evening.

John Stephan and his sons playing an organ, violin and saxophone rendered the first number very nicely, which was followed by a violin solo by Marian Skingley. Following these musical numbers the charter members Mrs. Carrie Feldhauser, Mrs. Ellen Failing and Elmer Ostrander and the past masters, Mrs. Florence Wakeley, Elmer Ostrander and Hugo Schreiber were seated. And then Mrs. Cynthia Knecht, lecturer, presented silver stars to 11 who had been members for 25 years and they are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Schreiber, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corwin, Mr. and Mrs. George Annis, Mrs. Carrie Feldhauser, Mrs. Florence Wakeley, Mrs. Ellen Failing, Mrs. Laurel Parker and Elmer Ostrander.

Following other musical numbers which included a duet sung by Mrs. June Underwood and Miss Helene Babbitt and an instrumental number by George Annis and son, Zina Stephan gave a recitation, as did also Lucy Stephan, and Mrs. Pearl Babbitt gave a reading.

Other very fine numbers were the address by Mrs. Flora Skingley, and F. J. Mills gave a very good talk taking for his subject "Farming and Marketing in Crawford County."

The main speaker of the evening was Roy C. Vandercreek, general manager of the Michigan Railroads Association, and he delivered a fine address to a very appreciative audience. Following the program a fine lunch was served to all and during lunch time Mr. Annis and son rendered many numbers.

Mr. Vandercreek told of the benefits from the railroads to local communities and urged strongly that the Grange get behind the movement to keep the railroads. Schools of Michigan have been the greatest beneficiaries by receiving the primary moneys derived from the taxes paid by our public utilities. Mr. Vandercreek said that the railroads approved the use of trucks by local and short-haul truckers, but that they did oppose the use of our tax-supported highways for free use by large trucks. Meetings such as these tend to bring about a better fellowship between the public and organizations such as these and the Grange is to be commended for the fine public spirit displayed at their Booster night meeting.

CERTIFICATE OF COMMENDATION AWARDED TO NEW YORK CENTRAL SYSTEM

Had Best Safety Record in the Transportation of Passengers

This award was made to the New York Central system for having attained the best safety record in the transportation of passengers—Line East, Line West, Michigan Central, P. & L. E. and B. & A. The record shows 12 consecutive years without a death to a passenger in a train accident, during which period there was an accumulation of 38,192,972,901 passenger miles, which represents the handling of approximately 950 million passengers or almost eight times the population of the United States.

This safety record would be the equivalent of the Twentieth Century Limited starting from Grand Central Terminal with 150 passengers and making 10,185 trips around the world at the equator, without a single fatality in a train accident.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has declared this to be the best record for passenger safety ever made by any Class I railroad.

This Certificate of Commendation has been reproduced and is being distributed to all agents on the New York Central system for continuous display to the traveling public.

Among the Clerks

(By J. Wellington Bumsted)

According to all reports, the much-discussed wedding seems to be the coming social event of just a few days. Most of us will miss those friendly leave-takings at the corner of Michigan Avenue and Chestnut Street.

We expect that our local Daniel Boone, of the Hanson Hardware Co., will bring in a vast amount of bacon this coming hunting season; he having received another of those ever-popular hunting knives at a recent anniversary party. It is expected that "Tootsie" will be invited to go along to carry the game home.

"Lou" Wheeler has managed to survive her Detroit vacation and is back on the job at Shoppens Inn. Probably 72 will be especially pleased to have Lou back in the city directory once more.

We suppose that Howard Granger and Robert Funk will find the local gals lacking in charm now that they have seen the White House ladies in all their grandeur. Probably the boys added a list of new ones to their book of addresses.

DOWN RIVER LADIES TO STUDY HOME ECONOMICS

The ladies of the AuSable valley have formed a club through the Home Economics Extension service.

A group met with Mrs. Flora Skingley Tuesday, Sept. 29, electing officers as follows:

Chairman—Mrs. Cynthia Knecht.
Sec. Treas.—Mrs. Helen Mathewson.

Project Leaders—Mrs. Henrietta Skingley and Mrs. Ruth Stephan.

Recreation Leader—Mrs. Leta Babbitt. Besides the officers, they have six members, and expect to add several more at the next meeting. The club will meet twice monthly, the next meeting to be with Mrs. Mathewson, the date to be announced later.

Public Invited To Open Meeting

REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF MOOSE TO BE PRESENT

Grayling Lodge Loyal Order of Moose will hold an open meeting at the Oddfellow temple on October 20th to which the public is cordially invited—ladies and gentlemen.

Ralph S. Campbell, of Marion, Ind., regional director for the state of Michigan, will be present and writes that he has a real surprise in store for the Lodge members and their visitors.

Mr. Campbell will visit Grayling in an effort to rebuild the Moose Lodge, which at one time had one of the largest memberships of any lodge in Grayling. There is a state-wide drive, on for members at this time.

A New Extension Project In County

Alice Hertzler, Home Extension Agent, has arranged with the Extension Director of Michigan State College to have Mrs. Lynde, the State Specialist in Child Care and Training, come to Crawford county to meet with the fathers and mothers who are interested in acquiring some of the new knowledge that the scientific world is giving us regarding children—how they grow, develop, feel, and behave.

The plan is for a three lesson project entitled "Meeting Your Child's Problems." It will be an excursion into the field of the new psychology of childhood and a study of personality adjustments in the home with the aim of solving some of the common problems of childhood. Before and after the meetings, Mrs. Lynde will offer opportunity for fathers and mothers to confer with her over their individual problems and those who wish to make detailed studies of some problem may do so under her direction.

Mrs. Lynde will meet with the group three times and will send each enrolled member two lessons by mail.

These meetings will be held in the school house at Frederic beginning October 23 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Duck Season Opens Oct. 10th

OTHER GAME BIRDS OCT. 15

Special details of conservation officers attached to district headquarters posts in the north are to be brought into southern Michigan to give added protection to game during the upland hunting season which opens in the lower peninsula, Thursday, Oct. 15.

Conservation authorities here estimated that approximately 250,000 hunters will take the field on opening day and that this vast number of sportsmen will create serious shooting hazards. The department issued a request to all hunters to be particularly careful in the use of firearms.

Three of the most common violations on opening day, says H. R. Sayre, chief of law enforcement, involve the shooting of protected hen pheasants, exceeding the bag limit on pheasants, and dressing out game in the field.

The last-named violation, if the game happens to be pheasants, removes the sex identity, and subjects the hunter to arrest by conservation officers. Sayre advises hunters to wait until they get home to pluck the feathers from their pheasants.

"We have made special efforts during the past two years to suppress the shooting of hen pheasants," Sayre stated. "We will do so again this season. The hen pheasant is protected at all times by law."

Beginning on Thursday, Oct. 15 the open seasons on small game in the lower peninsula, dates inclusive, are as follows:

Male pheasants—Oct. 15 to Oct. 28.

Ruffed grouse—Oct. 15 to Oct. 28.

Fox Squirrels—Oct. 15 to Oct. 24.

Woodcock—Oct. 15 to Oct. 28.

Prairie chickens north of north line of township 16 only—Oct. 15 to Oct. 28.

Sharp-tailed grouse north of north line of township 16 only—Oct. 15 to Oct. 28.

Rabbits from Oct. 15 to Jan. 1 in the area south of north line of township 16 and east of Saginaw bay, including the "Thumb" area north of north line of township 16 and west of Saginaw Bay.

Townline 16 is described as the south boundaries of Mason Lake, Osceola, Clare, Gladwin counties projected through Bay county to Saginaw Bay.

The open hunting season on ducks, geese and brant, coot, jacksnipe rails and gallinules which opens on Oct. 10 continues to and including Nov. 8 throughout the state.

The 2 o'clock afternoon deadline on shooting waterfowl in Houghton and Muskegon lakes remains in effect this year, the department of conservation announced. Special provisions in the general game law forbid any hunting on these lakes after 2 o'clock eastern standard time during the open waterfowl season.

CRAWFORD COUNTY IZAAK WALTON LEAGUE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

Organization of the new chapter of the Izaak Walton League in Crawford county is making excellent progress. To date approximately thirty local citizens have signed up and the feeling is general that Crawford county should have a real live sportsman's organization. A community depending on the tourist trade as this county does, should have an organization whose purposes are to conserve the game and fish life, for once our game and fish life are gone, what have we left to offer the tourist trade.

A committee consisting of O. P. Schumann, Frank Bennett, Farnham Matson, Roy Trudgen, Jack Redhead, Earl Wood and R. A. Wright are temporarily in charge of securing memberships and getting the organization underway. Applications for memberships can be secured from any of the above. The yearly dues are only $2.50 which includes the Izaak Walton pin and subscription to "Outdoor Life," a monthly publication edited by the national headquarters of the Izaak Walton League. Everyone in the county is cordially invited to become a member as we are at last going to have a real live sportsman's organization in Crawford county. Notice will be given in this paper of the date for the first meeting of the new chapter, at which time officers for the year will be elected.

THREE LADIES ENTERTAIN WITH A FAREWELL PARTY FOR MRS. BEARSCH

Mrs. Thomas Cassidy, Mrs. Roy Trudgen and Mrs. Geo. Olson were hostesses at a very delightful bridge luncheon at Shoppens Inn Thursday afternoon. An arrangement of Chinese lanterns and cedar boughs made a very unusual centerpiece for the long table at which the twenty-seven guests were served. Mrs. Frank Bearsch being the honor guest.

Mrs. C. G. Clippert and Mrs. Roy Milnes held the high scores for contract; Mrs. Geo. Alexander the high score for auction bridge while Mrs. Bearsch received the honor guest gift.

RIALTO THEATRE

SUNDAY and MONDAY

October 11 - 12

Sunday Show continuous from 3 P. M. to Closing.

ON THE FENCE this month were both Frank D. Fitzgerald, Michigan's farm-minded Governor, and Henry Ford, the State's farm-minded manufacturer. The two notables were not "on the fence" figuratively or politically, but quite literally. The fence concerned was that surrounding the paddock at the Michigan State Fair Grounds, in Detroit, and the two Michigan celebrities sat on its top rail, quite comfortably it seemed, for the better part of an hour.

Fitz was chewing a bit of hay whilst looking over the horses and listening to Henry expound his views. Every so often the Governor would withdraw the wisp of hay from between his teeth to smile at the motor manufacturer, and occasionally Henry Ford would punctuate his discourse with a slap on his knee. Observers noted that they seemed to be enjoying themselves and their conversation.

Reporters did not disturb them and the full course of their conversation goes unrecorded, but the Governor told later in the day that the "politics" didn't enter into things at all. "We just sat there and talked agriculture," said the Governor, himself an able farmer, "and Mr. Ford expressed himself as believing the future of agriculture was quite promising. He seemed to be optimistic for Michigan farmers in particular, and as we discussed farm machinery I was surprised at Mr. Ford's great interest in the subject and his keen interest in farm problems, and told him so. He told me that the industrial field was his business, but that the agricultural field was his hobby."

GRAND OLD PARTY followers snorted and did a bit of back-slapping amongst themselves when newspapers and the radio brought them news of the State elections. But shortly thereafter they merged their jubilant spirits in triumphant celebration when they learned of the unprecedented Republican triumphs at the polls in their own state of Michigan. "As Maine goes, so goes the nation," whooped one Lansing celebrant, while yet another tossed his own hat, and those of several of his pals, at the news from the home state. "Well," vouchsafed one enthusiast, "you ain't seen nothing yet—just wait until the other states start telling you what it's all about!" And that seemed to be the trend of opinion here, particularly among the boys who herd the state's elephants.

JUST FANCY THIS: It figures out that the New Deal spent the entire State of Michigan last year and another state—Indiana—in the bargain! In one year it blew in every Michigan home, store, and oil station, all the factories including Ford, General Motors, and the small ones, the railroads, mines, and public utilities, every farm and its buildings, machinery, and stock—all valued at $4,800,000,000 for tax purposes by Auditor General O'Hara—plus all in Indiana, too. For the New Deal bill was $8,793,000,000.

COMPTROLLER GENERAL McCarr, the recently retired watch dog of the U. S. Treasury for fifteen years, has suggested that many, if not all, of the "emergency agencies" be abolished as wasteful and tax consuming in the extreme. He points out that the deficit for last year was $4,700,000,000. That, as they will tell you at Auditor General O'Hara's office at Lansing, is just the value of our whole state!

RIGHT HERE in Michigan, only recently, New Deal money was poured into the Democratic offices of the State Highway Department, so that hundreds of that party's patronage crowd could be paid to sit on highway corners, in every section of the state, and count the number of passing automobiles in a traffic survey of doubtful value. In fact, from Washington came $950,000 for this express purpose.

Yet, at the same time, Michigan's facilities for caring for her mentally infirm are in a deplorable state. Asylums are overcrowded while the New Deal tosses money about lavishly for fish ponds and classes in roller skating. But Michigan always has, and always will, take care of her own, and the State Government is arranging to remedy the condition.

"Little Stories for Bedtime" by Thornton W. Burgess

JERRY HAS A SAD AWAKENING.

THE stranger had visited the Smiling Pool as he had been doing for more than a week. Jerry Muskrat had kept right on working on his house. All the time he had kept a bright eye on the stranger to see what he was doing. As usual the stranger visited each of Jerry's favorite eating places. It seemed to Jerry that he was at each a little longer than usual, but Jerry didn't think anything of that.

Just as soon as the stranger had left Jerry swam straight over to a certain old log which lay half in the water and half on the bank. He felt sure that on the upper part of that old log he would find some pieces of apple or carrot. He wasn't disappointed. His nose told him they were there even before he could see them. Now ordinarily Jerry climbed right up that old log out of the water, but this time he didn't. It just happened so, that was all. He climbed out on the bank beside the log and then up on the log. There he sat down and began to eat. My, how good those pieces of apple and carrot did taste! You see, Jerry had been working very hard and he had a splendid appetite.

At first he sat facing the water. After a while he changed his position so that his back was to the water and his tail dropped down in the water where it covered the lower part of that old log.

Snap! With a squeal of pain and fright Jerry jumped right up in the air. He lost his balance and fell off the old log. Then he tried to scramble away. He couldn't. Something was holding him by his tail and pinching it most dreadfully. Jerry was too frightened to think. He couldn't imagine what dreadful thing had got him. He pulled and pulled until it seemed to him that he must pull his tail out by the roots. Finally he twisted around to see what held him. It was a trap! The stout cruel jaws of it were gripping his tail about an inch from the end.

Then Jerry understood. He awakened to the truth, and it was a sad awakening. That stranger WAS a trapper after all. He had been putting those good things there for Jerry so that he would get so used to finding them that his suspicions would be put to sleep. When he was quite sure that Jerry had grown careless and was no longer suspicious of traps he had placed a trap on that old log just under water.

If Jerry had climbed up on that old log as usual he would have stepped in that trap and been caught by a leg. As it was, he had accidentally sprung it with his tail. Being caught by the tail was bad enough, but it would have been worse to have been caught by a leg, though Jerry didn't stop to think of this at the time. So far as he could see it didn't make any difference how he was caught as long as he was caught.

Poor Jerry! He was so frightened that for the time being he hardly noticed the pain.

Landon Urges Wisconsin to Save Its Ideal Homes

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Wisconsin, with its thousands of beautiful homes and high percentage of home owners, is an example of much that is best in American life today," Gov. Alf M. Landon, Presidential nominee, wired the Republican State convention here. "Your decentralized industry, including thousands of small manufacturing plants living and prospering side by side with larger corporations, represent an ideal and a balance for which we must strive and to which the Republican party is committed by its platform."

Landon's telegram continued: "These small homes and businesses have been built by a frugal people schooled in the old fashioned virtue of thrift. I have never before known a campaign which has evidenced so greatly the quiet determination of men and women to save for themselves and their children the things that we Americans hold most dear. The American people have an appreciation of the value of good government and are prepared to fight for it."

John D. M. Hamilton, national chairman, speaking at the convention, referred to American citizens as "stockholders" in the federal government, accusing the administration of misleading its stockholders. "Your stockholders would like to learn, Mr. Morgenthau, why in recalling that the Treasury estimated in 1934 a $4,000,000,000 deficit for the fiscal year just ended, you omitted the fact that in the same year 1934, your Chief Executive promised that the deficit for this period would be zero, and before a United States senate committee as recently as last April you predicted it would be nearly $8,000,000,000."

"Voters see in Gov. Landon a man who not only pledged his administration to a balanced budget, but a man who delivered a balanced budget," Hamilton continued.

Presidents' Spending Compared
Milwaukee, Wis.—Appropriations of President Roosevelt's administration which were unspecified by congress totalled 13 billion 500 million dollars, or more than eight times the combined unspecified appropriations made to all the Presidents in the 143 preceding years, John D. M. Hamilton, Republican National chairman, told the state Republican convention here.

Republican Trend Revealed by Poll

New York City.—"The most significant political development in the nation since the nomination of Landon and Knox is the distinct, proven trend toward the Republican candidates," declared John Hamilton, G. O. P. national chairman here, in a statement commenting on the poll conducted by the American Institute of Public Opinion. The poll indicates President Roosevelt's strength has slumped about four per cent since the Republican nomination.

"This means," said Mr. Hamilton, "that in total votes Landon and Knox have taken between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 from Mr. Roosevelt, and on the basis of electoral votes Mr. Landon is leading the nation. Director George V. Gallup of the survey gives him 272 with several important states marked doubtful."

Mr. Hamilton said the country is swinging to Landon because his common humanity has impressed itself upon the people, who realize he knows how to keep his promises, that he is of and for the common people and that instead of adding to the burden of taxation imposed upon the common man Governor Landon can be depended upon to deal with governmental deficits as the ugly things they are."

THE DAILY ROUND

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

WHO reads a daily round may deem

The daily round a grind. For so the task will always seem. The task however kind. Until it is a faded dream. Of something left behind.

This morning we our way shall wend

To some familiar door. Shall walk a street, and meet a friend.

And find a place of yore: But some day all of that shall end. And end forevermore.

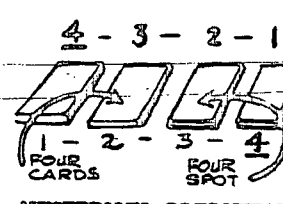

Yet I have known of mortals who Had found, yet never found, The ease they dreamed, as I and you Dream now of limbs unbound— Who longed for something they could do. Again the daily round.

You will choose four

ON a sheet of paper you write the words, "You will choose four." Place the paper on the table, folded so that no one can see what you have written.

Next lay four stacks of cards in a row. Ask a person to choose any stack. When he has done so, have him open the paper, then you prove that the stack he chose was "four."

Any heap may be chosen. If the person takes the stack at your right, you count the stacks yourself: "one, two, three, four—" ending on his heap. If he takes the stack at your left, you ask him to count the piles himself. He counts "from his left," and his chosen stack is number four.

One of the middle stacks has four cards; if the person chose it, tell him to count the cards and he finds that he has four. The other middle stack has only one card; that card, however, is a four spot, face down. If it is chosen, have the person turn up the card and he sees the four.
